"THE INCREDIBLE DUTCH" DISPLAY UNIQUE WARES AT THE CHICAGO GIFT SHOW

The Netherlands Chamber of Commerce in the United States has assembled the largest and most diverse group of Dutch exhibitors ever to participate in the Chicago Gift Show at McCormick Place, August 1-5, 1982.

More than twenty companies, under the banner of "The Incredible Dutch," will introduce high-quality giftware products to the American market for the first time.

The Netherlands is celebrating the Bicentennial of diplomatic and trade relations with the United States by showcasing Dutch products in an unprecedented number of American trade shows during 1982.

Both traditional and contemporary Dutch merchandise will be featured at the Gift Show. Traditional gifts on display include Delft earthenware, leaded glass window decorations, fine wall clocks, carved ship models, antique porcelain dolls, and copper, brass and pewter articles. Contemporary gifts on display include modern sculpture, children's games, fine writing implements and gold, silver, and bronze designer jewelry.

The following Netherlands firms will participate in the Gift Show:

- Alma Klokken B.V.
Manufacturers of fine-crafted Dutch, English and French style wall clocks
- Authentic Models Holland B.V.
Makers of delicate gold, silver and bronze jewelry and authentic carved ship models
- Brias B.V.
Designers and manufacturers of more than 200 styles of antique porcelain dolls and high-quality luggage accessories
- Dolico B.V.
Makers of fine copper and brass decorative items
- Eltraco
Manufacturers of herbal products, guest soaps as well as bath salts, and handmade glassware and leaded glass window decorations
- Groen Venlo B.V.
Producers of unique modern sculptures
- Jaarsma Souvenirs B.V.
Manufacturers of a wide-array of Delft jewelry and tableware including candles, cheese boards and salad servers

The Netherlands Chamber of Commerce in the United States, Inc.

The Netherlands and the United States have been diplomatic and economic partners for 200 years. The profitable alliance that both countries have developed is based on a mutual commitment to free trade and free enterprise.

Today, the Netherlands is the leading foreign investor in the United States, and the United States is the leading foreign investor in the Netherlands.

A businessman on either side of the Atlantic looking for new markets for his products, can find a group of experts as interested in his business as he is: The Netherlands Chamber of Commerce in the United States.

Established in 1903 and incorporated in its present form in 1920, the Chamber works to expand trade relations between the Netherlands and the United States.

The Chamber provides international business with a wide variety of services.

Whatever your business needs to prosper in a new country, the Chamber is always ready to help. Its management expertise and its record of success in practical trade promotion, make the Chamber the logical place for you to contact before launching a new business venture. When you return to your home country, the Chamber will keep you informed of new trade developments and assist you in following up on your business leads.

The Chamber Paves the Way for Business Success

Overcoming business obstacles is what the Chamber does best. The Chamber can supply manufacturers and suppliers with information necessary to help them bridge the economic and cultural differences between the two countries. By helping you deal with these differences, the Chamber can maximize your chances for business success.

The Netherlands Chamber of Commerce in the United States offers many valuable services:

Expert bilingual staff members

Access to extensive reference sources

Access to specialists trained in international trade, commerce, economics, finance, accounting, law and public relations

Full-service offices in New York, Chicago and The Hague

The Chamber Helps Build Business

Through the Netherlands Chamber of Commerce in the United States, you can take advantage of the following services:

Business Development

The Chamber can:

Establish direct business contacts with firms in the Netherlands and the United States

Supply screened, up-to-date lists of importers, exporters, manufacturers, wholesalers, brokers, distributors and representatives

Serve as a temporary contact address before, during and after a business trip

Marketing Research

The Chamber can:

Assist you with your market research and advise you on all aspects of your marketing plan

Organize individual and combined exhibits at trade shows

Organize trade missions

Information

The Chamber can:

Provide regular reports on new developments in customs requirements, tariff rulings, import duties and other trade issues affecting the Netherlands and the United States

Arrange frequent luncheon meetings where prominent Dutch and American businessmen speak on issues of vital importance to international trade

Special Assistance

The Chamber can:

Supply letters of introduction

Arrange appointments and itineraries for visiting business executives

Provide bilingual secretarial and translation services

When he enters a new market, the businessman faces many obstacles: the language is unfamiliar, customs are different and there are social nuances to learn.

Believe he can establish his operation, a businessman must learn about trade regulations and other legal requirements. Often, the success of a new product or service hinges on a businessman's knowledge of the political environment, economic climate and consumer behavior patterns of his new market.

Much valuable time and money can be lost while a businessman looks for sound advice.
